DESCRIPTION:

My artwork shows a scene of a ski resort I went with my family about two years ago. In this scene, my cousin is running joyfully on the snow, and I am gathering snow on the ground. The major part of the artwork is black and white, representing memory that faded due to time. Despite the fact that my family and I had a delightful time in the ski resort, I don't remember the exact scenery, such as how the snow looked and where the trees were located. However, I clearly remember attempting to build a snowman with bare hands and succeeding in making a small one. For the part enclosed with a paint strike, I used a variety of vibrant colors to express the vibrance of my memory, the happiness coming from nostalgia, and my sense of small accomplishment during the trip. Even though The paint strike – the most colorful memory – remains vivid till the present day.

Please include a detailed description of the artwork, clearly identifying the major elements of the piece.
